STANFORD UNIVERSITY ACCEPTED

Stanford University

March 25, 2016

Hashem Elzadi

Dear Hashem,

It gives me very great pleasure to invite you into the Stanford family as a member of the Stanford Class of 2016! The Admission Committee and the entire admission staff join me in sending congratulations.

You have an yourself apart, and we are impressed and inspired by your passion, determination and accomplishments. We acknowledge and celebrate all you have worked for with the good news this letter brings.

At Stanford you join a diverse, joyful and collaborative campus community with a shared determination to change the world. Indeed, Leland and Jane Stanford founded the University "to promote the public welfare by exercising an influence on behalf of humanity and civilization." That influence begins with an academic community committed to mastering the known and developing an inventive capacity to imagine the unknown.

Most important, Stanford is a place to grow and begin to define your place in the world.

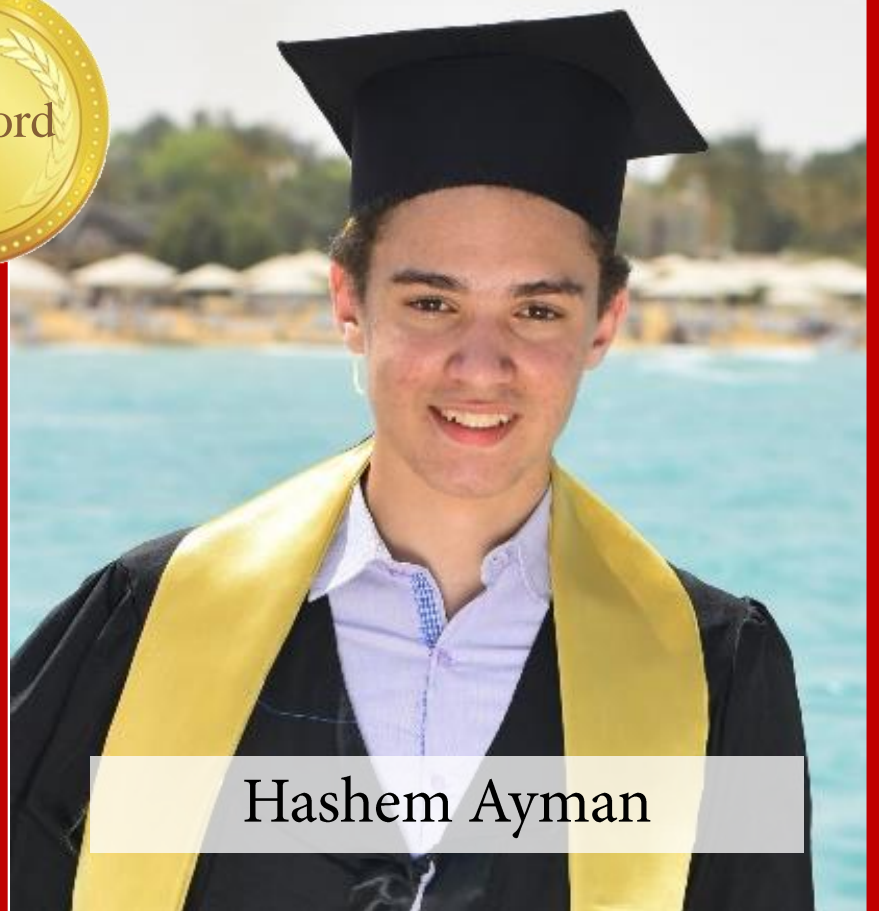

The next step is to visit admit.stanford.edu, your portal into the Stanford experience. Here you can learn about Admit Weekend 2016, April 28-30, and access the link to confirm your enrollment. Enrollment instructions are also enclosed, and you may respond to our admission offer at any time or at before May 1, 2016.

As you continue through your senior year, do not indicate changes to your course schedule without contacting us first. To maintain your place in the class we expect you will continue your strong academic performance in the program of study you presented in your application.

You are part of something larger than yourself at Stanford, and your unique perspective will contribute to our extraordinary community. We anticipate with excitement your arrival at Stanford in the fall. You have earned your way to this moment.

Sincerely,

Richard H. Shaw
Dean of Admission and Financial Aid

Hashem Ayman

PENNSYLVANIA UNIVERSITY ACCEPTED

Dear Mohammad,

On behalf of President Amy Gutmann and the Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania, I am delighted to inform you of your admission to Penn's 294th class. You have been selected for study in the College of Arts and Sciences.

You are now poised to inherit and, in your own way, to advance Penn's rich, historic tradition of innovation and impact. Over the next four years, you will thrive in a constructive, supportive environment where ideas and experimentation flourish. This atmosphere of collaboration is fostered by an eminent faculty deeply committed to undergraduate education; a faculty that will be there to guide your own exploration across the curriculum. The Penn experience will magnify and augment the uncommon potential that was evident in your application.

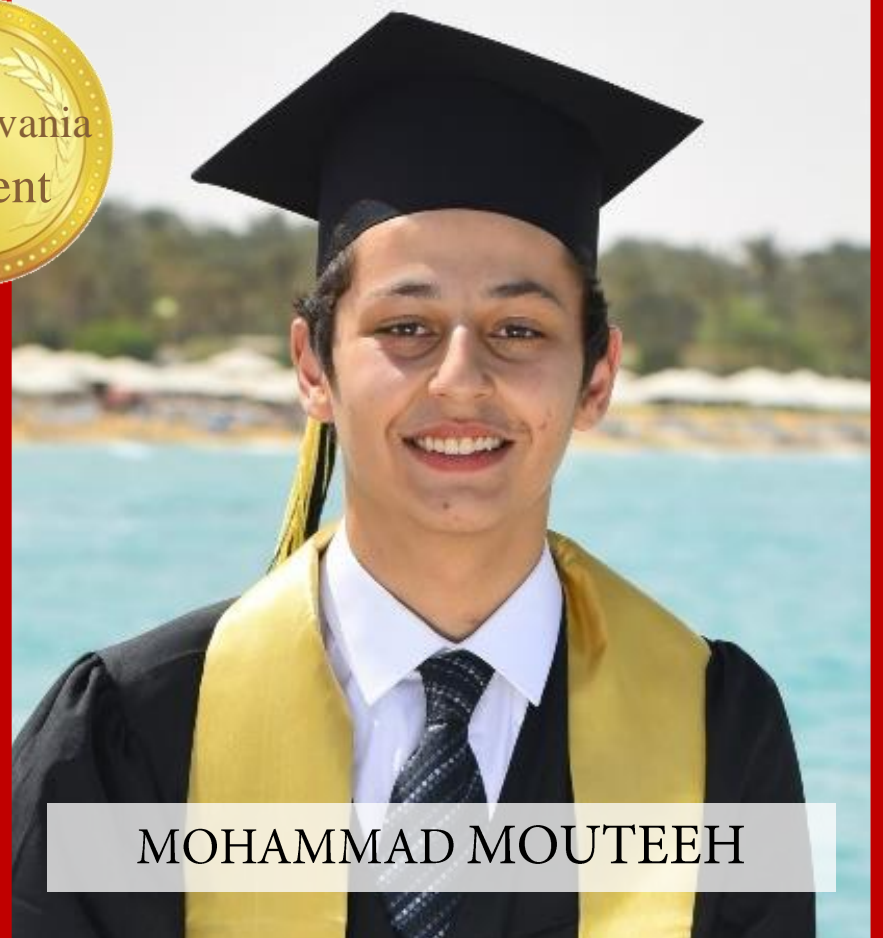

I join with your family and mentors in celebrating this extraordinary moment with you. Please take time to acknowledge their efforts in the days to come. Reflect with them on the challenge this letter presents to you: through their support and your hard work, you now have the opportunity to make a lasting mark on Benjamin Franklin's great University. I know that Penn will not be the same without you.

I look forward to our encounters on Locust Walk in the coming years, but in the meantime, please know of my personal well-wishes and deep gratitude for your application. Welcome to Penn!

Very truly yours,

Eric J. Furda C'87
Dean of Admissions

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY ACCEPTED

University ID: N13232934
Net ID: meza487

Mehmet,

On behalf of the admissions committee, it is my honor and privilege to share with you that you have been admitted to the Core Program in Liberal Studies at New York University.

Albert Gallatin, Treasury Secretary to U.S. Presidents Thomas Jefferson and James Madison, founded NYU in 1831. NYU has since grown to become the largest independent research university in America. I now have the pleasure of welcoming you to one of the most influential universities in the world. Congratulations!

We considered you for admission to each of our campuses and global academic centers for which you expressed interest in your application. Your offer of admission is extended with the expectation that you will spend your freshman year in Washington, DC.

Our Core Program is a rigorous two-year curriculum that is truly interdisciplinary, embracing literature, history, philosophy, art, architecture, and music. Faculty attention and small classes (typically fewer than 20) are its hallmarks. While completing the Core Program, students take courses in the other schools and colleges at NYU. Upon completing the Core Program, students declare a major in the College of Arts and Sciences or have the option of applying to another school or college at NYU. In either scenario, students must be in good academic standing and meet specific program requirements in their prospective major or school/college. Please visit our website to learn more.

What's Next?

1. View your financial aid award (if applicable) and confirm your enrollment by May 1. Visit our website for critical instructions on how to view your financial aid estimate and confirm your enrollment.
2. Keep performing. Your admission is contingent on the successful completion of your existing academic program at a performance level comparable to the one presented in your application. Visit our website to review our expectations for admitted students.
3. Connect with your classmates. Join the NYU Class of 2020 Facebook page to start connecting with your fellow NYU classmates, and RSVP for Weekend on the Square or one of our events for admitted students.

Your application was considered for any and all NYU programs and campuses for which you requested consideration.

Sarah L. Adams
Assistant Vice President for Admissions
